

English 9 Honors Overview

English 9 Honors is a course organized around the study of various genres of literature, including novels, non-fiction expository texts, drama, and poetry.

The course emphasizes instruction in the development of clear argumentation, support, and structure of analytical paragraphs and essays. Students will construct multi-paragraph essays that respond to non-fiction texts, analyze literature, and persuade an audience. Analysis is a key skill that students will develop as they explore the significance of a piece of text and the elements of writing that create meaning. Students will also be challenged to grow in their practical language skills through class discussions, formal and informal writing assignments, creative projects, and oral presentations. Students will continue to develop grammar, punctuation, and vocabulary skills.
